

Christmas Decorating Team

Purpose: To decorate the Narthex, Sanctuary, Living Room and New Life Center in the spirit and style of Christmas, enhancing our Advent worship.

Responsible to: Allison Gill, Executive Assistant for Ministry

Job description:

This is an annual task - setup and later, take down- of internal Christmas decorations. A church staff member, at the direction of Allison Gill, organizes volunteer teams and schedules, then directs the actual tasks.

Volunteers pitch in on the various tasks [such as: hang wall decorations, assemble trees, hang lights, etc.]. In recent years, the setup has taken 1 ½ hours, The Facilities Maintenance Team has also helped with a team of men to bring Christmas boxes from the Garage storage to the church prior to need.

Time requirement:

Volunteers generally do this during the week of Thanksgiving. They are also asked to take part in taking down the decorations on the first weekend after Epiphany. Time required: One day decorating, with 12 – 15 volunteers (it's helpful to have some – 3 to 4 - volunteers with the strength to carry large boxes. And, a similar time needed for the take down and storage of decorations after the holiday period.

Length of commitment: The Decorating team volunteers are only involved for the specified days needed.

Training provided: No specific training is needed.

Qualifications or special skills: a good eye for detail, some sense of design, and a willing hand and the needed physical abilities are all that is needed for the decorating team members.

Benefits to the volunteer: The volunteers can visually enjoy the fruits of their labor, sharing their work with the worshiping congregation for the whole Advent season. It is a Christmas gift to be given to the Lord and the church. Decorating camaraderie can also be great fun!
