

Journalism Volunteer

Purpose: Write articles, to be published in various media platforms, which will inform the St. Peter congregation and greater community of the events, stories, and “good news” of St. Peter Lutheran Church and the hope of Jesus Christ.

Responsible to: Assistant to Pastor Greiner (Lead Pastor)
Randy Rozelle (Campus Pastor), Keith Raimondi (Communications Director)

Job duties:

- Interview article subjects
- Research topics applicable to article
- Collaborate with article supervisor to understand the context and purpose of assigned article
- Write article and share draft with supervisor for feedback and edits

Time required: Will vary on a weekly & monthly basis, but typically one story per month.

Length of commitment: There is no set length of commitment for volunteers.

Training provided: N/A

Qualifications or special skills:

- Experience writing for church, non-profit, or business
- Familiarity with AP Style Guide
- Excellent written communication skills
- Experience interviewing subjects
- Writing sample (from school, work, etc.) required

Benefits to the volunteer:

- Valuable experience for individual interested in journalism/writing
- Meet interesting new people from the church community
- See God at work among us
- Builds the Kingdom through outreach within our community and beyond!